

Nathan deBoom

PROFILE

Mr. deBoom has over 15 years of experience in developing and managing innovative and diverse environmental projects; successfully guiding them through state and local permitting and regulatory processes.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Shoener Environmental, Inc.

Pasadena, CA

Office Manager – California Office

March 2015-Present

- Manage Shoener’s environmental and permitting services conducted in California.
- Provides regulatory and compliance guidance for renewable energy projects.
- Manages and prepares environmental, regulatory and planning documents.

DeBoom & Associates LLC.

Pasadena, CA

President

March 2006-Present

- Offers advice and coordination of projects through the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) process. Successful projects include a sugarcane to ethanol facility, a major cheese and whey derived processing plant, a biomass waste treatment plant, digester facilities, waste recycling/compost sites, solar projects, and a gas pipeline infrastructure.
- Manages and prepares environmental, regulatory and planning documents.
- Provides regulatory and compliance guidance.
- Develops biomass sources and markets. Locates and contracts sources of biomass for alternative fuel facilities. Arranges for and transports processed waste products to agricultural markets.

Milk Producers Council

Chino, CA

Executive Director

2005

- Reported directly to the Board of Directors. Purposed budgets, directed projects, and managed staff.
- Represented sectors of the California agricultural industry to the media and public officials.
- Served as a board member and technical advisor to a number of public and regulatory agencies.

Chief of Staff

2000-2004

- Operational responsibility for day-to-day management. Coordinated outreach to members, authored weekly newsletter that was distributed to over 10,000 readers, and was chief advisor in regulatory and policy issues.
- Operational responsibility for day-to-day management. Coordinated outreach to members, authored weekly newsletter that was distributed to over 10,000 readers, and was chief advisor in regulatory and policy issues.
- Developed innovative approaches to handle dairy wastewater by coordinating a dairy discharge program and assisting in the completion of an artificial wetland to treat dairy waste.
- Assisted and represented farmers in farm preservation issues such as agricultural based easements, land use planning, and city incorporation.
- Authored several technical and resource articles on a number of subjects related to agriculture, including a published article in the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisals.

Environmental Specialist

1998-2000

- Managed an USDA grant that was designed to educate farmers across the state on environmental compliance.
- Assisted and advised regulatory staff in the development of the first agricultural air quality regulations in the nation.
- Assisted in the implementation of water quality compliance for agriculture in the Chino and San Jacinto Basins.

National Capital Planning Commission

Washington, D.C.

Intern

September 1997 – December 1997

- Assisted in identifying area landmarks for a regional global information system (GIS) database.
- Supported planning staff in day to day project planning issues.
- Involved in task force regarding National Mall monument long range planning.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- Chino Basin Watermaster (1995-Current)
- Southern California Land Foundation (2002-2004)

EDUCATION

Master of Urban and Regional Planning

2005

California State Polytechnic University

Pomona, CA

Emphasis: Environmental Design

Graduate American Institute of Certified Planners Student Award (2001)

Bachelor of Arts, Environmental Studies

1998

Dordt College

Sioux Center, IA

Minor: Sociology & Political Science